Families have had a regular, professional, unique and high quality service literally on their doorsteps that they can access. It is reaching many of those families who really need us. The Playbus and staff are seen, not only by the families, but by the community as a reliable friend offering support. Families say that attending the Playbus gave them contact with other parents, that the play themes were interesting and educational for the child and that their children really looked forward to and enjoyed the session on the Playbus.”
